Tenth Day.

FRIDAY, June 8th. The House met at 10 o'clock, the Presi dent, Hon. S. G. Wilder, in the chair. Minutes of eighth day's session were read by the secretary and interpreter, and confirmed. THE REAL STREET PETITIONS

Rep. Kalaukoa presented a petition from twenty-seven residents of Honolulu praying (1) that the House look into the matter of private ways, (2) that the law relating to private ways be, amended, (3) that the law state how wide private ways should be.

Rep. Brown moved the petition be laid on the table to be considered with the bill given notice of by Noble Castle on the same subject. Carried.

BEFORTS OF COMMITTEES. Rep. F. Brown reported three bills printed. NOTICE OF NEW BILL Noble Waterhouse gave notice of:

An Act to prevent the issue of commereial paper as a circulating medium. NEW BILL Noble Baldwin read, a first time An Act to amend Section 20 of An Act entitled An Act to repeal Chapter X. of the Civil Code, and to regulate the Bureau of Public Instruction, approved January 10. QUESTIONS TO MINISTERS. Rep. Kamauoha asked the Minister of

1. If it is true that $22,858 48 had been taken from the Treasury within the last two years ending March 31, 1888, to pay the expenses for the steam tug, and $5.39 48 is still due by the Government for such service?

What caused the expenditure of $17,589 within the last three months end-ing March 31, 1888, for this service? The Minister's report states that 5.29 48 has been expended over and above the amount appropriated by the last session, and that the Government still owes $5.29 48—why has the average cost of this service for those three months been so much greater than for the preceding eleven months! ORDER OF THE DAY. Attorneys and Counsellors - Second readng of an Act relating to attorneys and the inferior Courts of the Kingdom. Considered section by section.

The third section, providing that attorneys and counsellors at law pay certificate fees of $50 and practitioners in the inferior Courts $25 a year, brought on a long and spirited debate, in which Messrs Castle, Thurston, Kalaukoa, F. Brown Hitchcock, Kamanoha, Smith, Kauhi Green, Young, Waterhouse and Wide mann took part. Messrs. Kalankoa, Kauhi and Kamauoha claimed that the payment of the fees would bear unjustly native practitioners. The application of the proposed tees for the purpose of purchasing books for the law library, specified in another section of the bill. Rep Kauhi claimed, would be no advantage to himself and other Hawatian lawyers who are not versed in the English language Noble Young supported this view of the matter. On motion of Rep. Kauhi, an amendment was adopted, by a small majority, that the fees payable by attorney and counsellors be $100. Noble Castle then moved that the fee of

Noble Widemann, alinding to a remark high for practitioners in the lower Courts to pay, said that might be so, but if the license was not worth that sum, it was not worth anything, and he therefore moved an amendment that the sum of "nothing" be inserted instead of $25.

Noble Waterhouse moved reconsideraion of the former vote, which carried, and the $50 was reinstated in the bill.

Noble Castle withdrew his amendment Minister Thurston at this point said that he was sorry to observe a disposition on the part of some members. Rep. Kalaukoa in particular to excite race prejudice in the House. Members are not here as "haoles" or as "kanakas," but as Hawallan citizens, to legislate for people of all nationalities, of whatever race or color The section passed as in the bill. At noon the House took recess one hour.

Afternoon.

The House reassembled at 1 o'clock. Section 4 of 'the legal practitioners' bill was taken up.

Rep. F. Brown moved an amendment that all fees accruing from this act be paid into the Treasury. The realizations from all departments of Government, according to the Auditor Act, are payable into the Treasury. Funds for the purchase of law books for the library ought to be provided in the Appropriation Bill. The amendment was lost.

An amendment by Noble Hitchcock was put and carried, as annoucheed by the President, "three voting for and one against."

Minister Ashford opposed the bill, and argued that it invades the sanctity of contracts. The certificates to practise in the courts, held by himself and others, are contracts between the holders and the country.

Kep. F. Brown moved the indefinite postponement of the bill. The spectacle was seen at last session of the lawyers in the House, with a majority of other members, carrying through acts that were subsequently deciared anomatitutional. There was one exception at fast session, the honmember for Koolaulon, but now he is tacked on and is following the lend of the other members of the legal profession. The House ought to give some attention to the views of the Attorney-General, who is supposed to know as much about law as ther members of the House.

The section passed as in the bill.

Noble Smith moved an amendment in the grammar of the first section. Adopted. Rep. F. Brown asked if a person defend-ing himself in a court will require a feepaid ficense. Noble Castle-No, you can defend your self any time you are hauled up.

Rep. F. Brown moved the enacting danse be indefinitely po-tooned. Lost. Minister Ashford moves the bill be re erred to the Judiciary Committee, with His Excellency cited Cooley's Constitutional Limitations, 331 and subsequent pages, also the Hawanan Constitution, in support of his opinion that the provisions of the bill cannot be sustained by the Courts. He was not speaking as an officer of government but as a private citizen he would not pay the fee until the Art is ruled constitutional by the court. Noble Castle held that the legislation of 1839 providing for licenses to Jegul practitioners could not bird all subsequent legis-latures. This bill is not meant to cance licenses. The constitutional question in-volved had been excefully considered and he had no doubt the act would be valid. The bill passed to engrowment, to be read a third time on Tuesday. Copyrights Second reading of the bill: To provide for the Registration of Copyrights. Referred to the judiciary commit-

Rep. J. I. Dowsett approved of the re-port, except that he thought that the pay of the messenger ought to be $3 per day. The report was adopted. MINISTERIAL ANSWERS.

Tug Expenses-Minister Green read the following:
In reply to the questions asked by the hon member for South Kona with regard to the different amounts in table B of the report of the Finance Department, page 20, under the head of running expenses of the steam tugs, I would state that $15,000 was appropriated for this purpose in 1889 that this sum was all expended on June 30, 1887, and that in November, 1887, $5,259 48 had been further expended to which amount, at the last session, in December, 1887, an indensity bill was passed An appropriation of $2,589 was also made at that session to cover the expenses till March 31st. This amount added to $15.000 makes the $17,589, total appropriation, and table B shows that $22,585 48 were drawn, being $5,239 48 over the appropriation and for which overdraft the Legislature of 1887 passed, as I have said above, an indemnity bill.

Boring has been completed, pile driving as in order and on June 11th, just a month after he left here, all building operations has opened his Philadelphia office at Girard building, 116 South Third Street. Three sugar ships, chartered at San Francisco by the Galifornia Refinery, the J. R. Kelley, George Curtis, and W. J. Pirrie, have arrived at Manila to load back. The ship Loch Eck and back W. W.

Crapo both sailed from Manila last month with cargoes of sugar for this port.
At the annual meeting of stockholders of the Pacific Mail S. S. Co., the report showed net earnings of $440,428.45. The need of new steamers was referred to and the Board is considering how to raise money for the extraordinary expenditure. The report deprecated the apathy of the government in regard to steamship companies and urged a subsidy for carrying the United States mails.

Hawaiian Commercial Co.'s stock has strengthened, and is now quoted at $19%.

Bay ways remains unchanged at $2. Raw sugar remains unchanged at 5% cents for Cuban 96, but the price of Golden C has been advanced 1/2 cent in San Francisco. Blame has again positively declined to permit of his nomination for President by the Republican party. Cleveland will be the Democratic nominee with Thurman for Vice President probably.

The fight over the tariff, under the fiveminutes' rule, has began in a lively mun-ner. Mills takes the least for the Demo-erats and he has already been pretty crats and he has already been pretty sharply attacked by Reed, McKinley and Brown. A number of amendments to the Mills bill have been proposed by Demo-crats and all were accepted. None of the changes affect island affair.

deneral Phil Sheridan has been lingering at the point of death, for the past ten days, suffering from an attack of disease of the heart. His death has been expected everal times but he seems to have extraordinary vitality. To-day he is somewhat better and his friends and relatives. and his friends and relatives are more hopeful. A bill was introduced and quick passed turough Congress making him General of the Army. It was passed in four minutes, signed by the President and confirmed by the Senate, then handed to Mrs. Sheridan. Ill as he was the General insisted upon being propped up in bed to sign his letter of acceptance.

The affairs of Wm. T. Coleman & Co. are still in process of settlement, and it is reported that a composition will be effected at the rate of 75 cents on the dollar. The published statement of assets and liabili-ties shows that the latter amounted to almost $3,000,000, which is exceeded by the estimated assets when they include the private property of Wm. T. Coleman.

Without this property there is a deficiency of almost $1,000,000 in the actual business transactions of the firm, valuing the assets as estimated by themselves. A Japanese paper states that the number of emigrants going thence to Hawaii has been yearly increasing, and that the steamer Takasago-Maru was to sail on May 20th When a certain nor has departed the Japanese government will put a restriction upon further emigration, so that no more may leave until some have been returned.

Mr. Adair Weicker, son of Professor Weicker of Berkeley, has written a comic opers entitled. " It, or a Tale of the Kan-aca Emgtom," the music being by Mariano Xicoy. The opera is said to be very amusing and Mr. Welcker has imitatelf Gilbert's style. It will shortly be produced at the Orpheum in San Francisco.

A late Cornular report from Germany shows that, under the improved methods of manufacture now in use, the quantity of bests required to produce one millier of sugar has decreased by 40 per cent. While the gain in raw sugar has risen by 75 per cent, the efficiency of individual factories has increased by over 25 per cent. The superior yield of saccharine from beets to attributed mainly to scientific and technical improvements that have been intro duced in the internal economy of augar factories. It is these improvements that make Mr. Spreckels so confident of success in California. The three story brick building, at the corner of Fourth and Brannan streets, and occupied by the West Coast Forniture Co., has been destroyed by fire. Among the property burned was a very handsome show case for the California State cereal exhibit at the Melbourne Exhibition.

Ex-Assessor Louis F. Holtz has died after a lingering illness extending over six or seven months. Immigration statistics show that 9,000. 000 immigrants have landed at New York since 1847, and 3.000,000 since 1880. This vear there have already been landed 179,-000 and over 135,000 have arrived since April 1st. It is probable that this will be the greatest year on record for immigrathe Supreme Courts granting a writ of habeas corpus to Chinamen paying poll tax. The steamer Ben Muir has returned to Hongkong with 35 Chinese who were not allowed to land, and the steamer Changshas passenger rates for Chinese were reduced arrived off port with 150 on board but was losely watched by the police.

CORRESPONDENCE.

statements made, or opinions expressed by our correspondents, Rum and Our Revolution.

Mr. Entros:-That the direct and indirect consequence of rum was the first noving cause of our revolution, and I may say the greatest of the many causes that brought on our revolution-yea, and greater than all else combined, we think will not be disputed by a well balanced mind that is posted upon the subject; and to one not posted a reference to the history of those times, with the memory refreshed by the reports of the recent trials of the revenue whiskey frauds, will furnish sufficient proof that rum was the supreme agent used in all attempts at wrong doing and corruption, not only to influence elections and defraud the Although Claus Spreckels only left San revenues, but the grand lever used by Francisco on May 10th, he has already let | the party in power to influence members to vote as they wished when they want-ed laws made to uphold their corrupt actions. When they wished a law passed to raise the salaries of officials, they inwill be in full blast with men working day and night in three shifts. Mr. Spreckels they wished money raised by taxation fluenced members with rum; when ce at the or otherwise, they used rum as their indirect agent. The opium bill, and in fact all bills aiming at extravagances, were passed by the aid of rum. This was charged frequently at the time, and never disputed, so far as I saw. So almost all lines of extravagance, as well as drunkenness, must be bud to this giant corrupter, rum, and as stated above, rum was both the direct and indirect cause of the evils that brought on the revolution. To say that the Legislature has no right to deal with this king of evils, because "intemperance was not specifically agitated during the election campaign," is straining the point of sound logic, as it had been thoroughly agitated and ventilated months before the revolution, and no more needed a specific agitation before election than any other evil of which the people complained. The wisdom of dealing with the cause of all evils, as well as the evils themselves, is very apparent, as without the drunken officials and their still worse drunken acts, there would have Eeen but little cause for a revolution, Of the many shortcomings of the old Government, no one item, to the exclusion of others, was held up as a conspicnous object of reform, but drunkenness and the evils arising from it, combined with financial extravagance, official corruption (rum the agent), incapacity, bribery and opium licenses were the evils complained of to be reformednot one of them but all of them. reform financial extravagance and leave drunkenness and its attendant evils unmolested would make the revolution as incomplete as if the evils of drunkenness had been removed and national extravagance left unmolested. The Legislature was elected to make laws for reforming, as far as laws could be made to do so, all of the evils named above, and to repeal all laws that had a tendency to encourage corruption either in high or low places. Extravagance and folly are being checked by law, and opium prohibited. Why not check or try to check the worse evils by the same means? It is certainly expected if not demanded by the reform movement.

We want prohibition pure and simple as that would be the direct opposite of what the old government practised. Prohibition of official corruption and incapacity, prohibition of opium, prohibition of rum, etc., is what we expected; but as the latter dies hard and seems to have friends among soher men we would be satisfied for the present if the Legislature would give us that part of prohibi tion called "local option," as that would give an opportunity for agitation and secure to the people of every district the right to decide this question themselves, and we would look to the future, growing power of temperance to insert a prohibi tory clause in our Constitution. It will ? surely be done, and these islands may yet have the honor of being the first country to do away with rum by constitutional probabition. This done, these islands would be "gems of the scean" in lact as well as in name, being freed
